Biodynamic Association

With your Will we can regenerate our world

“As your proud patron of the Biodynamic Association, I urge you to consider making a bequest in your Will to support the ongoing work of the Association. Nearly a century after Rudolf Steiner shared his vision for the future of farming in his Agricultural Lectures, his impulse is alive and well, manifesting in the inspiring work of the Biodynamic Association. Your legacy will help ensure we leave our planet, her soils, plants and animals in a better state for those that follow us.”

Patrick Holden, CBE, Patron of the Biodynamic Association
Founding Director & Chief Executive of the Sustainable Food Trust

Our vision

To ensure biodynamic farming and gardening remains a constant inspiration for the 21st century. Becoming a benefactor means so much and will help ensure all our valuable work prospers practically and spiritually. Like planting an oak tree, it will leave a lasting legacy for our world.

What are the benefits?

In addition supporting the ongoing work of Biodynamic Association, your legacy can have financial benefits for your family. Its value will be deducted from your estate before inheritance tax.

Adding a codicil to your existing Will to leave a legacy is easy see inside.

Will your final chapter help regenerate our world?

When creating your Will, or adding a codicil to your existing Will, after providing for your loved ones, please consider leaving us a share of what is left as your gift to pass on to the Earth.

It is with deep gratitude that the Biodynamic Association benefits from gifts in Wills.

These gifts ensure those that follow us are able to keep the biodynamic impulse alive, providing the world with regenerative biodynamic solutions to our current environmental crisis.

Gifts in Wills make a very real difference. Providing more education, training and advice. Ensuring more land each year is being cared for using biodynamics, producing more vital food for body, mind and soul. Distributing more of the biodynamic preparations to bring about the healing and transformation of our earth.

Adding a codicil to your Will is easy. Just use our form on the next two pages.
